I felt an immediate bond. I learned through my session with Deidre that I could help my deceased mother with her transition in the afterlife with some very specific work on behalf of myself and my seven siblings. I also learned that a tumultuous and painful relationship from which I was emerging at that time was, in fact, the Divine counterpart to a very spiritual and unusually gifted relationship with my twin flame whom I would be meeting in approximately 8-12 months. I also felt strongly the awareness of positive results for my mother when they were realized by her. I then met my wonderful man, 9-1/2 months later, unexpectedly, as I was focusing, as instructed, on other areas of my life. He is all I ever dreamed of. Thank you, Deidre, for holding this mirror up for me so that I can see more clearly where it is best to focus my energies. Thank you, most importantly, for encouraging me to stay on my path and to stay faithful. I have tried my best and have been rewarded beyond hope. Please keep up your selfless giving work and encourage others like me to stay their courses and believe. - Very Best Regards, Mary, Phoenix, AZ

Deidre came into my life when I was very hopeless and depressed due to two miscarriages I had. To this point I thought I might never be able to have my own children. I wondered why this happened to me and why it happened twice. She really took the time to help me and look deep within the family history, or should I say the problems in our family -- going way back into my great-grandmother's life -- and everything she said was true. I started to understand why there were those problems and why those things have happened to me. She was very kind and gentle. I could feel her love even though I was so far away -- this helped me so much. She also sent me a healing, and I really felt the energy going into my body. I knew for certain that now I am healed and able to have children which I so much longed for. Those miscarriages truly broke my heart, and Deidre really gave me my faith back. I am now a mom of an 8-month-old son. :) Deidre is a wonderful person. Yes truly an Angel God has sent to me back then. I will be forever grateful for her help. Thank you so much. - Simone Graser, Germany

Dear Deidre, I am still flying from my work with you. The sessions I did were life changing for me. They were vital to my spiritual growth. You are blessings in this universe, and I feel so fortunate to have them share their healing and guidance. Your life will never be the same once you have a session with them. My spirit is soaring with the ravens! - Tina McCarty, Tuscon, AZ

Very uplifting and so inspiring, I'm very happy I called you when I did. Going into December/New Year I will be giving you an update on my new job I'm intending on getting based on your wisdom and knowledge I have faith and thank you so much again! Amazing, call her! - Kassandra O.

It was great to talk with you. I realized a lot of things during our conversation that I needed to work on. Thank you for helping me to see that I needed to take charge and "say what I needed to say" for me. A lot of my suspicions arise from my childhood. I also know that I need to work through this to get to the other side. Thank you for your supportive and calming session as I know it has already helped me. You are a blessing to your clients. Thank you again! - Rhonda J

I needed a game plan; she gave me one. I am so pleased. Deidre and I spoke the same language. "Just be who you are and revel in these days as though fresh flowers were being delivered daily to your life." That is exactly how I feel, with the joy of knowing there is so much more to come. Thank you, Deidre! - Jude

Thank God ... for leading me to you. My Dear Deidre, I cannot thank God enough for leading me to you and I cannot thank you enough for helping me in this journey of life as I find myself, who I am and why I am here. Your articles have been very helpful to me. May you continue to share your love and light with all those in need of it. - Your friend, Ayesah

The degree of correlation of your insight is truly amazing ... you were batting between 850 and 1000. Dear Deidre ... Thanks again for helping us with my wife's spiritual journey. The audio tapes generated during the session indicate amazing levels of insight gained during the session. The increasing levels of detail in the insights were also very impressive. When she was spaced out from being in a state of comatose in the ICU in January, she was concerned about the following appliances: refrigerator, washer, and dryer, which seems to correlate with the Egyptian laborer lifetime insights. She said that she "needed 3D", which we later figured out was that she needed more space when the family was crowding around her bed, another correlation with one of your insights. Her strength of character, compassion, practicality, and sense of fair play all correlate well with the Nun lifetime insights. In my opinion, your emphasis on "being" vs "doing" goals are very appropriate for her currently. - Warm regards. A Happy Husband, Tucson, AZ

It was reassurance ... things are okay "Sometimes, everything can be overwhelming. You are still a responsible member of society, paying tax, receiving paychecks, while sought after by voices of nature, it is overwhelming. In those days, you tend to forget that no matter how hard and impossible your life may seem, in the end, the Universe is all about forgiving. You were forgiven from the very beginning, but you simply cannot realize that when there's too much on the to-do-list. You forget that you can believe people. You forget that at the core, you are very good, and that you are now just a little agitated, if you can't be generous to others as you wish you could. Those are the times you might want to get in touch with Deidre. For me, it was reassurance. After having talked with Deidre, I could tell myself that things are okay, it has always been okay, the leaves are singing and the sky is blue, and we are all vibrating, transforming, including you and me, filled with love and joy. Hope you get to see that, recall that as well, if you feel like you are confused and lost." - Aika, journalist
